PASTOR'S CORNER

Because of the seriousness of this flu season, Bishop Barchak has asked that the Precious Blood of the Lord not be offered at Mass temporarily. It is the belief of the Catholic Church that the whole Body of Christ is present under either form of consecrated bread and wine. Also, the exchange of the sign of peace should avoid bodily contact. A reverent nod with eye contact and a smile will be the temporary practice.

Reception of Holy Communion on the hand is encouraged; however, reception on the tongue may not be denied. These norms are in effect throughout the winter months or until the flu season is over.

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

Mr. Jean Jaures, the famous French socialist Member of Parliament (1859-1914), was an atheist who chose a highly anticlerical teacher for the education of his daughter, to ensure that any trace of faith would be eradicated from the soul of his child.

On the evening of one of his finest oratorical successes, returning home rejoicing in his triumph, Jaures heard a light tap on the door of his office. His daughter Germaine came in. "Father, I am so happy," she said. "I came to let you know that I have set my mind on the person who will be my life's companion." She knelt in front of her father and confessed: "I want to give my life to God in the religious life."

For Jaures this was like a thunderbolt. He only had the strength to ask: 'How long have you had this idea?'. "For four years, Father. One day when I was walking with my teacher in the countryside, we found a broken cross by the roadside. I tried to put the pieces back together, but my teacher gave it a kick. I felt utterly crushed inside, and since that day, many seeds of new thoughts have grown in my soul that you didn't plant in it." She kissed her father's hand, but he motioned to her to leave.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

January 21

Mark 1:14-20

It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch is sons walk away and follow Jesus. It was the end of 'Zebedee & Sons Fishing. Inc.' Our children are never ours. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.

MAY HE REST IN PEACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Gary Zonfrilli whom we honored with Christian Burial during the past week.

END OF YEAR STATEMENT OF CONTRIBUTIONS

May God's blessing be upon all those who have so generously supported our parish family throughout 2017. Those individuals or families who for tax purposes would like to have a statement of your contributions for 2017 are asked to call the Rectory. We would be most happy to provided that information for you.

LITURGICAL REFELCTION...

In today's Gospel the fishermen abandoned their nets and followed the Lord. Faithful Christians follow Christ by having total love for God and neighbor. In every celebration of the dead, the Church attaches great importance to the reading of the word of God. The readings proclaim the paschal mystery, convey hope of being gathered together again in God's kingdom, and encourage the witness to the Christian life on the part of the living. As we continue on our pilgrimage of life, we seek God's mercy and love. May our dead know peace in Christ, and may we be comforted in that same peace.

Order of Christian Funerals, 1998-1989, Number 22

SUPPER CLUB

The Supper Club will meet at the Outback Steakhouse on February 4 at 12:00 NOON. Call Mary for reservations 946-3449.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

Monday, January 22, all diocese in the United States of America are observing a Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.

January 22 is the day of the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision, Roe vs. Wade (1973), the Church in America prays for the violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion, and of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee to the right to life. Members of the Diocese are encouraged to go to Mass on this day, pray the rosary, the chaplet of Divine Mercy, fast and abstain and join the Altoona-Johnstown family in praying the following:

O God, who adorn creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in your image and likeness, awaken in every reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of human life. Through our Lord, Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL RESPECT LIFE MARCH...

St. Mathew Church-Tyrone, January 21, 2018 at 12 noon. Walk 1.25 miles to grave of Baby Agnes Doe. Luncheon after the March in Parish Hall.

Bring a Sign.

Sponsored by the St. Gregory Council #1218 Knights of Columbus.

RESPECT FOR LIFE

God our Creator, we give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each of us in our mother's womb; grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

ECUMENICAL SERVICES

Today, January 21, 2018, Bishop Mark Bartchak of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown will have an ecumenical service at Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament, One Cathedral Square, Altoona, Pa. The service begins at 2:00 p.m. All are invited to participate in this prayer.

ST. ROSE OF LIMA ST. VINCENT DePAUL CONFERENCE ANNUAL APPEAL

This is the Season For Hope

Our hope is that through your support and prayers we can continue...

Changing lives...One at a time.

Since 2007 we have been helping our neighbors in our community get through times of crisis and need. It is only with your financial, material and spiritual support that we can continue these efforts.

In this season of hope we look to you for help, so we can continue to help others.

The second collection at all of our masses next weekend, January 27-28 will go to our SVdP Conference.

Please donate what you can to help us help others.
