PASTOR'S CORNER

BISHOP ROBERT BARRON'S CATHOLICISM: THE PIVOTAL PLAYERS

Catholicism: The Pivotal Players study series showcases a handful of saints, artists, mystics, and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of western civilization. St. Francis of Assisi, the Reformer, radically and literally lived as Jesus commanded to transform the Church. St. Thomas Aquinas, the Theologian, demonstrated that faith and reason are not at odds, as they come from the same source. St. Catherine of Siena, the Mystic, gave testimony to the reality of the spiritual dimension here and beyond. Blessed John Henry Newman, the Convert, left a prestigious career to seek and preach the apostolic faith. G.K. Chesterton, the Evangelist, publicly, humbly, and humorously announced the paradoxes and truth of Christianity. Michelangelo, the Artist, dramatically demonstrated that beauty and creativity are a primary route of access to God.

Journey with Bishop Barron to explore the lasting influence of these Pivotal Players.

The 13 week course begins Wednesday March 8th from 7:00-8:30 PM in the School Art Room. Feel free to join us for some or all of the meetings.

A $25.00 registration fee covers the cost of the study guide and is due by March 1st. Registration forms can be found on the foyer table.

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

The seven founding saints of the Servite Order were seven Florentine merchants who freed themselves from the constraints of their trade to live in service of the Church, imitating the Mother of God in both prayer and apostolate.

These close friends, between 30 and 35 years of age, chose to retire to a life of silence. They built wooden huts in the forest for themselves, and devoted their time to prayer and manual work. Each one in turn would go out begging to identify with the poorest class and experience humiliation.

They had never thought of founding a religious order, but Rome asked them to do so. It was their devotion to the Holy Mother of God that earned them the name of "Servites" or the "Servants of Mary."

Since a bond of true brotherhood had united the seven men during their life, posterity embraced them in the same veneration. In 1888, Pope Leo XIII, collectively canonized them. Their names were Bonfils, Bienvenu, Manet, Amadeus, Hugh, Sosthenes and Alexis. Their bodies are buried at Mount Senario in the same tomb, so that the same shrine encloses the remains of those whose fraternal life in the service of the Virgin Mary kept united.

Parent Meeting for First Communion February 19, 2017

Time: 9:15-10:15

Place: Social Hall

If you have any concerns, please call Bernice Shoenfelt at 944-8509 (rectory), 942-5659 (home) Or e-mail: bshoenfelt@stroselima.com

The Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown has received an advisory from public health officials that the reported cases of "the flu" and similar contagious viruses remains a serious concern at this time. Therefore, Bishop Bartchak has asked that the Precious Blood of the Lord not be offered at Mass temporarily. It is the belief of the Catholic Church that the whole Body of Christ is present under either form of consecrated bread and wine. Also, the exchange of the sign of peace should avoid bodily contact. A reverent nod with eye contact and a smile will be the temporary practice. Reception of Holy Communion on the hand is encouraged; however, reception on the tongue may not be denied. These norms are in effect throughout the winter months or until the flu season is over.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

February 12

Mt 5:17-37

To experience the peace which Christ promises we must shed our grudges, jealousy and feelings of being misunderstood, unappreciated or ignored. Peace and anger don't mix. Today's gospel warns, if you want peace in your heart and home, get rid of your anger. Anger is too costly

C.F.M....What is it?

The initials stand for Christian Family Movement. It is the kind of lively Christianity that Pope Francis is now talking about and encouraging. C.F.M. began flourishing in the U.S. and 25 other countries 60 years ago.

It is a network of small groups each within a parish. A typical group is made up of 6 to 8 married couples who meet monthly in each other's homes to reinforce Christian values and encourage other Christian parents through active involvement.

One of these is active in St. Rose Parish and now is inviting other couples to "come and see". Interested couples may call Damian and Kelly Charlesworth, 814-946-4502 for information.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

In the revised Order of Celebrating Matrimony (2016), the Church states that God has raised the indissoluble conjugal contract between husband and wife to the dignity of a Sacrament so that it might signify more clearly and represent more easily the model of Christ's own nuptial covenant with the Church. Christ is the Bridegroom and we, the Church, are his Bride. By the Sacrifice on Calvary, this covenant can never be broken. Man and woman in the Sacrament of Matrimony en flesh the divine relationship between Christ and the people of God.
