LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

The Order of Celebrating Matrimony offers three distinct rituals for celebrating the Sacrament of Matrimony. First, there is the order of celebrating Matrimony within Mass; secondly, there is the order of celebrating Marriage without Mass; and the Church presents a ritual for celebrating Matrimony between a Catholic and a Catechumen or Non-Christian. All three orders contain the following: scripture and homily, questions addressed to the bride and groom, consent, blessing and giving of rings, Universal Prayer, Our Father, and Nuptial Blessing. Of course, it is the usual custom to have two Catholics married within Mass.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

June 18

John 6:51-58

Parenting is a Eucharistic activity because from the first moment of conception children consume us, our flesh, blood, energy, time and resources. If we don't sacrifice ourselves, our children would not have life. This is the priesthood of parenting. Christ is present in this self-sacrifice. Fathering is an awesome responsibility and not for the weak or transient.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Body and Blood of Christ

We, with our many and varied gifts, are indeed on body—the Body of Christ!

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

It is a strong symbol for the Iraqis: two statues of the Virgin of Guadalupe from Mexico have just arrived in Iraq, a gift to the Christian refugees from the Catholic social movement Unión de Voluntades, in association with Aid to the Church of Need—Mexico (AED-M).

The People of Mexico want to sow some hope and love among the persecuted Christians in the Middle East and increase the devotion to the Patroness of the Americas worldwide.

In the summer of 2014, many local Christian communities welcomed hundreds of refugee families driven out of Mosul and Qaraqosh (Iraq) by the self-proclaimed jihadist Islamic State as they refused to renounce their faith and convert to Islam.

Teresa Garacia Paquet, from AED, cried as she shared her story, saying that many nuns had to walk the Way of the Cross alongside thousands of people forced to abandon their land, "What we experienced can only be faced through faith," the nuns said.
