Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

On September 8, 1914, feast of Our Lady's Nativity, Marcelle Lanchon, 23, received an apparition of Our Lady at the Chapel of the Armies in Versailles (France) on the same day that the Virgin Mary stopped the Germans on the Marne, near Paris.

The visionary, who witnessed more apparitions, later took the name of Marie France as a consecrated virgin in the Pious Union of the Adorers of the Sacred Heart that she had founded. She handed down a prayer to recite for France: "My Son, forgive her, she still loves you since she never stopped loving me." As well as this promise from the Virgin: "My Son asks that you make images and statues representing me as Queen of France, and that the people invoke me under the title of Our Lady of France. If they answer this new desire of His Divine Heart, France will again become particularly mine, I will take it forever under my maternal protection and my Son will delight in spreading abundant blessings over the land."

Bishop Roland Gosselin, the local bishop, gave permission to print the image of "Mary Queen of France" with the prayer revealed during the apparitions.

GRANDPARENTS DAY PRAYER

Dear God, please bless my grandparents.
Thank you for the life they give to me.

For the ways they helped me and made me strong,
I give thanks.
For the ways they love me no matter what,
I rejoice.
For the ways they have paved the road that leads me here,
I am grateful.

Let me grow in wisdom and joy in life.
Let them find peace and rest from their work.
Let them be healed of every sickness and pain.
And let them see with their own eyes
the glory of your Son, Jesus,
In the love of their children and grandchildren.

Bless them always until they come to rest in you.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

Tomorrow marks the sixteenth anniversary of the terrorist attacks on American soil. Many lives were lost, many were injured, and still many continue to mourn that painful September day. Take time for special prayer, participate at Mass, pray the rosary, read scripture, take time before the Blessed Sacrament and silently reflect on God's love. Ask the Blessed Mother, patroness of our country, to intercede that peace prevail among the nations and for an end to terrorism and violence. God bless our country and all the peoples of the world.

FAMILY RITUAL

Have an Attitude of Gratitude!

- For all those who labor, we thank you Lord.
- For grandparents' loving and caring ways,...
- For the opportunity to learn new things,...
- For farmers who grow and harvest our food,...
- For all the beauty the Fall season brings,...
- For nature walks and hayrides,...
- For apples, cider, and pies,...
- For Fall sports and safely for those playing...

Practice thanking and trusting God as you walk through times of change in the seasons of your life.

Families and the Gospel

September 10

Mt. 18:15-20

The key word in today's gospel is "listen." We cannot change another person; not alone, not with others and not with a whole Church. All we can do is state our position and "if he listens to you" then he/she can take the steps necessary to change themselves. Change comes from within.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

When celebrating the Sacrament of Matrimony with Mass, the order of the rite is: Liturgy of the Word, the Celebration of Matrimony, and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Once the celebration of Matrimony is completed, the preparation of the altar and gifts follows. The rite suggests that the bride and bridegroom may bring the bread and wine to the altar. Other possibilities would be family or friends. The couple can ask their godparents to bring up the gifts. Once all is ready on the altar, Mass proceeds in the usual manner.
