Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

One night when Saint Gregory the Wonderworker was pondering the doctrine of the faith, an old man appeared before him. Startled, Gregory stood up and asked: "Who are you and what do you want?" The stranger told him that he had been sent by God to enlighten his doubts and reveal the truth of faith to him.

Gregory hesitated, torn between joy and fear, until the apparition outstretched his hand as if pointing in the opposite direction. Gregory turned and saw a woman of superhuman majesty. Unable to stand the light that emanated from her, he lowered his eyes. Then he heard the two visitors discuss the question that had been preoccupying him.

From this conversation, Gregory gained a true knowledge of the faith, but was also able to identify his two heavenly visitors: he heard the woman pressing John the Evangelist to disclose to him the mystery of faith, and John answered that he was ready to do so, since this was the pleasure of the Mother of God.

When the Virgin Mary and Saint John has left. Gregory rushed off to write down the teaching from Heaven. This testimony is the oldest that has been documented and dates back to the third century.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

This Thursday, November 23, is Thanksgiving Day and a special Day of Prayer in the Diocese. We pray in thanksgiving for the Harvest and Fruits of the Earth. As our country pauses to give thanks to God, Catholics are encouraged to participate at Mass and give thanks for all the gifts we have received. Please join in praying the following:

God, your gifts of love are countless and your goodness infinite.
On Thanksgiving Day we come before you with gratitude for your kindness.
Open our hearts to concern for our fellow men and women, so that we may share your gifts in loving service.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

CELEBRATING THANKSGIVING

- ♥ What are some of the most difficult times you've experienced as a family this year? Looking back, can you find a reason for being thankful even for the negative?
- ♥ What is distinctive about your Thanksgiving Dinner? Is it one of the food items served? Is it one of the customs, prayers, or activities, that makes it special? Whatever it is, be sure you keep it alive as your "Family Tradition."
- ♥ Have family members write a letter of Thanksgiving to someone who touched their life in some special way within the past year. Thanksgiving would be an ideal time for your family to celebrate the Eucharist. The word Eucharist means Thanksgiving. There is no obligation to attend Mass but the extra effort to do so makes it a little extra special. Let as many members of the family as possible assist in the preparation of the Thanksgiving meal. Each can do something and it should be recognized how each one contributed to the meal.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

This year the liturgical inserts have reviewed the 2016 rite of the Order of Celebrating Matrimony. The new ritual possesses an expanded introduction. And there is an expanded set of scripture readings. The introductory rites state there is no penitential rite and the Glory to God is always used for a Ritual Mass. There are expanded and retranslated orations. All in the assembly are invited to stand as the couple exchanges vows. An acclamation is to follow the consent of the bride and groom. The local customs in the Diocese include the bride taking a flower to the image of the Blessed Virgin Mary, flowers given to the mothers of the bride and groom, and introducing the newly married couple at the end of the rite. The Church rejoices with this man and woman now married in the name of Jesus Christ.

ADVENT PRESENTATION

Sister Theresa will be offering an Advent Presentation on Bishop Robert Barron's DVD on THE EUCHARIST: as a BANQUET, SACRIFICE, and THE REAL PRESENCE. Following the presentation there will be a discussion. This will be held at Holy Rosary Church, 900 N. 4th St. in Juniata. We will meet on three Tuesdays: November 28, December 5 and December 12 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This is a very wonderful preparation for Christmas. Please call Sister Theresa at 942-5747 if you and a friend will be attending. God bless you.
