PASTOR'S CORNER

The message and devotion to Jesus known as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary of about 600 pages recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to the Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

The message of mercy is that God loves us—all of us—no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. It is a message we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC.

A—Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B—Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C—Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This weekend we will conclude each Mass with special prayers for Divine Mercy.

Deacon Jim’s “A Moment with Our Lady”

Bruno Cornacchiola, a fundamentalist Protestant, once wanted to kill the Pope. The Blessed Virgin appeared to him in a cave near Tre Fontane, a district of Rome, Italy, on April 12, 1947. She told him: “You are persecuting me, stop it now! Return to the holy Fold! Have the people pray and recite the Rosary daily for the conversion of sinners, the unbelievers and for the unity of Christians. In this land of sin, I will do great miracles for their conversion.”

The same day, he engraved this inscription in the rock with his own hand: “In this cave the Divine Mother appeared to me. She lovingly invited me to return to the catholic, apostolic and Roman Church...”

A priest indicated by Our Lady led him to Pope Pius XII, on November 9, 1949. There, Bruno humbly admitted: “Holy Father, here is the Protestant Bible with which I ‘killed’ many souls.” Then, with tears in his eyes, he said: “Here is the dagger with the inscription “Death to the Pope.” I was planning to kill you with it! I have come to ask for your forgiveness.” Much later, in 1978, Bruno met John Paul II, who told him: “Since you saw the Mother of God, now you must become a saint!”

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

April 8 John 20:19-31

In today's gospel Jesus teaches, “Blessed are those who have not seen and believe.” Accepting someone as they are, without demanding they prove themselves or meet our expectations, creates a rich relationship. Without acceptance a home is only a house and a family is just a group of house mates.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

We stand with Thomas today to make one of the greatest professions of faith in scripture to Jesus Christ, "My Lord, and my God!" Thomas comes face to face with the Risen Christ. The celebration of the Christian funeral brings hope and consolation to the living. When a Christian dies we proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ with certainty and witness to Christian hope in the resurrection. The funeral rites recall God's mercy and judgment and meet the human need to turn always to God in times of crisis. Death has lost its power. We live in the mercy of God, in the risen life of the Easter Jesus.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

2nd Sunday of Easter

In his first encyclical, Pope Benedict XVI states that "Only if I serve my neighbor can my eyes be opened to what God does for me and how much he loves me." On this Divine Mercy Sunday, practice Christian stewardship (serve others) through works of mercy and reconciliation.
