Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

The Shrine of Our Lady of Three Ears of Wheat is the only place of Marian apparitions in Alsace and one of the oldest places of apparitions recognized by the Church in the world.

On May 3, 1491, a market day in Niedermorschwihr (a village in Alsace, France), Thierry Schoere came to town and bought a supply of grain, but he found it impossible to lift the sack! He then asked forgiveness from Heaven because his self-respect had kept him from revealing a message from the Virgin Mary.

In fact, at about ten in the morning he had stopped to pray in memory of a man who had died in an accident at a place called 'Habtal.' Suddenly he saw a bright light surrounding the Virgin holding three ears of wheat on a single stem in her right hand, and in her left hand, a piece of ice.

The ice, she said, represented the misfortunes that would fall upon the region if the people did not convert. The ears of wheat announced the blessings that God was ready to send those who would turn to Him. Thierry Schoere was expected to make public this call to conversion. To convince him, he had to be confronted with a sack impossible to lift. Since then, many miracles have occurred. Today, teams of worshipers take turns in adoration every week, even staying overnight.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

This is Pentecost Sunday and the fifty days of the Easter Feast conclude. Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit who reveals faith in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is the Holy Spirit that enlightens the minds of believers to go forth and share the good news of the dying and rising of the Lord. Christians are people of life. We boldly proclaim our shared faith in Christ's saving death and resurrection. With 1.3 billion Catholics we proclaim with certitude and trust our faith in God's abiding love, the Lord's salvific death and resurrection, and the Spirit's guiding presence in our lives.
