Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

The church of Our Lady of Marillais, on the outskirts of Saint-Florent-le-Vieil in France is a popular, long-time pilgrimage site, a highly spiritual place, and one of the oldest Marian shrines in the country.

This region along the Loire River was evangelized by Saint Maurille, one of Saint Martin's followers. During one of Maurille's visits to Saint-Florent-le-Vieil in 430, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to him and asked, on behalf of her Son, that her birth be celebrated there on September 8th.

Our Lady's apparition was the prelude to the decision made the following year by the Council of Ephesus in 431, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, to recognize that the Virgin Mary was also the Mother of God.

Thus the feast of the Nativity of Mary came from a direct request from heaven. As for the pilgrimage of Our Lady of Marillais, it is one of the oldest Marian pilgrimages in France.
