PASTOR'S CORNER

SECOND COLLECTION FOR CATHOLIC CHARITIES

For 78 years, Catholic Charities has helped our neighbors throughout Central Pennsylvania regardless of faith or background. 100% of contributions received through next weekend's second collection will directly help your neighbor in need. Please return your Catholic Charities envelope that is located in your pack of envelopes or make your gift online at:

www.catholiccharitiesaj.org. Thank you for helping Catholic Charities of Altoona-Johnstown reduce poverty in communities throughout our diocese.

THANKSGIVING DAY OFFERING

For Thanksgiving Day Mass (9:00 a.m.), we invite your offering of nonperishable food and monetary gifts for local needy families. To give you a better idea of needed items and a satchel for your items we have distributed grocery bags and "Needs List." You may return the filled grocery bags from now until Thanksgiving. Place your returns in the foyer needy bin. For cash gifts, please put Thanksgiving Day envelope in the offering basket.

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

"Gua Maria" or the "Cave of Mary," is a very important Marian shrine in Indonesia. On August 16, 2015 at Ambarawa, in the central region of the island of Java, the shrine celebrated its 61 years in a spectacular way. After a Mass concelebrated by 15 priests and seven bishops from the Archdiocese of Semarang, a gathering of 30,000 faithful awaited the blessing of a 137 ft. Statue of the Virgin Mary.

The statue of Our Lady of the Assumption, the work of the famous trio of local religious sculptors, the Kuncoro brothers—Adi, Agung and Nugroho - is the tallest statue in the world. However, the most remarkable thing about it is that it was not built in a traditionally Catholic country but in a state that has the largest Islamic population in the world. Indonesia has a population of 250 million, among which 87.2% are Muslim and only 3% are Catholic (nearly 7.5 million faithful).

A few days before the inauguration, the Archdiocese of Semarang organized a special meeting of the country's various religious leaders at the shrine, an initiative supported by all the local political parties!
Pilgrims flock there today by the thousands.

LITURGICAL REFLECTION...

Since in baptism the body was marked with the seal of the Trinity and became the temple of the Holy Spirit, Christians respect and honor the bodies of the dead and the places where they rest. Created in the image and likeness of God, Catholics strongly believe in the sacredness of the human body. For the final disposition of the body, it is the ancient Christian custom to bury or entomb the bodies of the dead. While cremation is permitted, the ashes of the deceased believer are to be buried or entombed like the body.

St. Rose of Lima's St. Vincent de Paul Conference Weekly Reflection for November 11- Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on."

Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care.

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS
