Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

Simon Stock was born in England in the late 12th century. He became Prior General of the Carmelite Order in the 13th century, at a time when, in competition with the flourishing of new orders, the Carmel was threatened with extinction. Simon Stock then turned to Mary and asked: "Was not the Carmel intended by Our Lady and closely linked to her honor?"

The Mother of God answered him in an apparition that likely happened on July 16, 1251, when she gave him the wonderful gift of the Scapular. Here is an excerpt of that story from the 'Fioretti of Our Lady of Mount Carmel':

Our Lady appeared to him, surrounded by a multitude of angels, holding in her hand a Scapular. She said: "This is a sign for you and a privilege for all Carmelites: whoever dies in this garment will be preserved from eternal flames." And she gave Simon the Scapular.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL

May 5

John 21:1-19

When Peter announced, "I am going fishing" he was doing something that he had done everyday since childhood. Little did he know that he would meet the risen Christ in such an ordinary activity. Today's gospel teaches us to expect to encounter the Lord in the ordinary routines of our family life.

FAMILIES UNITED FOR CHANGE, a grass roots group to bring about change in recovery.
