SAINT OF THE WEEK

Our Lady of Mount Carmel 12th Century Feast Day – July 16

Mount Carmel, which juts out into the Mediterranean near Haifa, Israel, has been considered a sacred place since the prophet Elijah built an altar there in his contest with the prophets of Baal. The Carmel headland is traditionally associated with the beginnings of the Carmelite order around 1195, when a group of lay hermits formed a community there. Mary had been honored there as early as the fifth century, and by the 12th century Mount Carmel had become a site of Marian devotion. The Carmelites chose Mary as their protectress and dedicated their oratory on Mount Carmel to her. Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the patron of Bolivia and Chile. This Marian feast became an optional memorial in the Revised Roman Calendar of 1969.

Bring a lawn chair. Indoors if rain. Bishop Mark is the celebrant and homilist. This is a wonderful way to celebrate, encourage and support married couples!

Deacon Jim's "A Moment with Our Lady"

The Carmelites, originally called the Hermits of Saint Mary of Mount Carmel (the first order to bear the name of Mary in formal papal bulls) did not separate the Lord's service from that of the Virgin Mary, his Mother. In Mary, the Carmelites saw their sister because of her virginity, and the mother who had given life to their Order. They professed devotion to Mary, imitation of Mary and total consecration to Mary.

The Carmelites solemnly celebrated Mass in commemoration of the Virgin Mary every non-commemorative Saturday and, like the Cistercians, they also celebrated Mass daily in honor of Our Lady. The Carmelites did not imagine having another feast day than a feast of the Virgin and, as Mount Carmel is quite close to Nazareth, they seem to have first chosen the Annunciation, and dedicated most of the monasteries they founded in Europe to the Our Lady of the Annunciation as well.

At the end of the 14th century, the Carmelites instituted a feast (July 16th) to commemorate the favors they had received through the intercession of Our Lady. In 1726, Benedict XIII extended the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel to the universal Church.

MAY HE REST IN PEACE

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION
July 12 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As Jesus teaches with parables about the growth in faith for the disciples in His time we are called to "hear and listen" so we can also understand the Truth of the love that will grow God's Kingdom. To love as Jesus did will "bear fruit and yield a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." (Mt 13:23)

By living as good stewards of God's many gifts, we have the capacity to harvest an abundant crop of "faith" that nourishes ourselves as well as other we encounter in our earthly journeys. It is by living to provide our brothers and sisters who are in need of food, clothing, shelter, forgiveness, healing and safety, that we can share in the glory of God's Kingdom.
